Front Desk

Welcome to the HTH, how many will be drop- I mean checking in today?

Great, your rooms will be ready soon.

Head down the hall to the doors on your [side]. And do enjoy your stay.

Library Room

Welcome to our hotel's library, please move in to watch a short show whilst your rooms get cleaned, and watch the doors behind you.

Your rooms are just about ready now. Please exit through the door on your right and head over to our lovely elevators.

Load Elevator

Greetings, I am your Bellhop for today. Your rooms are now ready, and your elevator will be here shortly, so please wait patiently.

Before you go, our concierge would like to share a quick word with you.

The doors to your elevator have now opened for you to enter. Please be careful and watch your step as you enter.

Now that you all seem secured enough, do make sure all items, and companions are secured as well.

Any last minute words? Oh well! Have a nice drop- I mean stay.

Unload Elevator

Welcome back, I'm glad to see you all are still here, and in one piece. Please exit to your left, and do come and stay with us again. Farewell.
